Mumbai, January 13, 2008: FIR's Chandramukhi Chautala is getting a new boss!! Versatile Ali Asgar has joined the show as Chief Inspector, Raj Aryan. So for all the people who thought that the chaos at Imaan Chauki was crazy...think again!! The comic quotient is all set to reach greater heights as Ali Asgar joins Kavita Kaushik, Shiv Pandit and Kiku Sharda to add an extra dose of laughter to this famous show on SAB.

On bagging a role in the prestigious show, Ali said "I am looking forward to having a blast on the sets as well as making my audience have a good time. I have been a great fan of FIR as I think that it is one of the funniest shows on TV. The best part of my role is that not only do I get to play a funny cop but I will also try to romance the leading lady."

It is a clear case of love at first sight now on FIR. Raj (Ali Asgar) immediately falls in love with our very own, most venerated Kavita Kaushik a.k.a. Chandramukhi. Raj secretly fantasies of romancing Chandramukhi in his dreams. While Chandramukhi keeps hushing him off but to no avail. Raj is head over heels in love with Chandramukhi and cannot keep his eyes off her, he keeps trying to woo her all the time. Raj goes all out to impress her to the extent of seeking help from Gulgule and Gopi to find out what can strike Chandramukhi and make her heart skip a beat for him!

So for more fun filled chemistry keep watching FIR every Friday 8.30 pm only on SAB
